

Alexa Davis

PROGRAM OFFICER

Ms. Alexa Davis joined the Central Asia-Caucasus Institute as a Program Officer in September 2023. She serves as their main point of contact in the Washington, D.C. office and handles all administrative responsibilities. Ms. Davis is responsible for planning all internal events and overseeing business support services for the Institute. Additionally, she manages the social media accounts and assists in website management. She earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Global Studies from The New School.