

CACI Co-Hosts Forum in Dushanbe

July 1, 2017

Related Categories: Democracy and Governance; Energy Security; Caucasus; Central Asia

Related Expert: Ilan I. Berman, S. Frederick Starr

From July 1-2, AFPC's Central Asia-Caucasus Institute (CACI) and the Rumsfeld Foundation hosted the Central Asia, Mongolia, Caucasus, and Afghanistan Forum (CAMCA) in Dushanbe, Tajikistan. The Forum featured two days of dialogue on the CAMCA region, focusing among other on regional security, trade, investment opportunities, and government accountability.

Presenters included CAMCA network members and speakers from the ten participating countries, as well as distinguished invitees from China, the EU, India, Japan, Korea, Singapore, Turkey, and the United States.

CACI and the Rumsfeld Foundation are pleased to announce that the 2018 meeting of the CAMCA Forum will be held in June 2018 in Baku, Azerbaijan. Its local partner for the event will be Azerbaijan's new ADA University.