

CACI Forum: “How Can CAMCA Countries Help Rebuild Afghanistan?”

November 6, 2018

Related Categories: Democracy and Governance; Afghanistan; Caucasus; Central Asia

Related Expert: S. Frederick Starr, David Soumbadze, Svante E. Cornell, Stephanie Driscoll

The Central Asia-Caucasus Institute presents this Fall's team of Rumsfeld Fellows, emerging leaders from the Caucasus, Afghanistan, Mongolia, and Central Asia - which the alumni themselves have dubbed the 'CAMCA Region.'

At this session, fellows will focus on role of the regional neighbors and partners in the process of rebuilding Afghanistan. Stability and prosperity in Afghanistan will be an important contributor to emerging regionalism in CAMCA and integration of the region in global economy.

WHEN: Tuesday November 6, 2018
4:30-6:00 PM

WHERE: Middle East Institute
1319 18th St NW, Washington, DC 20036

Click here to register!

Fellows include:

Ms. Hadeia Amiry, Special Adviser, National Security Council of Afghanistan

Ms. Anna Sarkisyan, Defense and Security Program, Transparency International Armenia

Mr. Rufat Abbasov, Founding Partner, Synergy Partnership, LLC, Azerbaijan

Ms. Natia Gvenetadze, Head of the Professional and Institutional Development Department, Defense Institution Building School, Ministry of Defense of Georgia

Mr. Ruslan Kozhakhmetov, Vice-Rector for corporate development, Almaty Management University, Kazakhstan

Mr. Nurlan Kyshtobaev, Partner, GRATA Law Firm, Kyrgyzstan

Mr. Enerelt Batbold, CFO/Director of Finance Department, Mongolian Railways State Owned Shareholding Company

Mr. Munkhnaran Bayarikhagva, Policy Analyst, National Security Council of Mongolia

Ms. Zarrina Abdulalieva, Country Officer, World Bank Office in Tajikistan

Mr. Malik Mukhitdinov, Program Officer, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA), Uzbekistan Representative Office

Ms. Hilola Muminova, Director, Business Development Group, Uzbekistan

Moderator: S. Frederick Starr, Chairman, Central Asia-Caucasus Institute at AFPC