"After the heads of the major intelligence agencies, including FBI Director Christopher Wray; CIA Director Gina Haspel; Director of National Intelligence Daniel Coats; Defense Intelligence Agency Director Gen. Robert Ashley; National Security Agency Director Gen. Paul Nakasone; and National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency Director Robert Cardillo, testified Tuesday before the Senate Intelligence Committee on their Worldwide Threat Assessments that confront the United States in 2019, President Donald Trump and the intelligence community see those threats differently."
