AFPC Senior Fellow for Europe and Eurasia E. Wayne Merry quoted in National Interest article regarding Ukraine roundtable discussion.

"Wayne Merry of the American Foreign Policy Council asked about U.S. policy, asking why Zelensky has not been invited to meet with American leaders. "If Poroshenko had been re-elected, he would have had an Oval Office invitation by now...he probably would have addressed a joint session of Congress by now," he said. Herbst said that there are rumors in Ukraine of an upcoming summit in four to six weeks between Zelensky and American leaders. "I think that's true," he commented."
