

AFPC Webinar: Islamism in North and West Africa

October 28, 2020

Related Categories: Human Rights and Humanitarian Issues; Islamic Extremism; Terrorism; North Africa; West Africa

Related Expert: Ilan I. Berman

In recent years, and especially since the collapse of the ISIS caliphate in Iraq and Syria, Africa has become a major theater of Islamist activity. How is religion shaping – and re-shaping – the politics of North Africa? What role does it play in regional conflicts, like the Libyan civil war? And what extremist actors are now mobilizing on the continent? Our expert panel explores these and other pressing questions.

Participants:

- Emily Estelle, Research Manager, AEI Critical Threats Project
- Ofir Winter, Research Fellow, Institute for National Strategic Studies, Israel
- Jacob Zenn, Fellow, Jamestown Foundation

|