The Central Asia-Caucasus Institute, in cooperation with the Embassy of Kazakhstan to the United States, would like to invite you to a CACI online Forum on Kazakhstan's role in international mediation. The event will be held at 10 AM on December 4, 2020, and will mark the publication of a new Silk Road Paper on the topic. In recent years, Kazakhstan has taken on the role of a mediator in several international disputes, ranging from the Iranian nuclear issue and the Ukraine conflict to Turkish-Russian relations and the Syrian civil war. The study, authored by Svante E. Cornell and S. Frederick Starr, analyzes the reasons for Kazakhstan's involvement in international mediation and the implications thereof.

Speakers:

S. Frederick Starr, Chairman, CACI at AFPC

Amb. Erzhan Kazykhanov, Ambassador of Kazakhstan to the United States

Svante E. Cornell, Director, CACI at AFPC

David A. Merkel, Associate Fellow for Geo-Economics and Strategy, International Institute for Strategic Studies

Moderated by Mamuka Tsereteli, Senior Fellow, CACI at AFPC
