Today in Asia, geopolitical trends such as rising Chinese adventurism, renewed Indo-Pakistani tensions and a shifting strategic balance in Afghanistan are all profoundly reshaping regional politics. Our webinar explores these and other trends, how they are collectively changing the complexion of the region, and their intersection with Islamism throughout Asia.

Speakers:

Ajai Sahni, Executive Director, Institute for Conflict Management, New Delhi

Michael Kugelman, Deputy Director, Asia Program, Woodrow Wilson Center

Michael Sobolik, Fellow in Indo-Pacific Studies, American Foreign Policy Council

Moderator:

Ilan Berman, Senior Vice President, American Foreign Policy Council
