

Morocco And The Normalization Question

November 11, 2020

Related Categories: Democracy and Governance; Economic Sanctions; International Economics and Trade; Africa; Middle East

Related Expert: Ilan I. Berman

"Will they or won't they? Since the start of the "normalization" wave this summer, speculation has abounded as to whether other regional nations would follow the lead of the UAE and Bahrain (and now Sudan) and establish full diplomatic relations with Israel. President Trump has expressed confidence that quite a few countries will do so in coming weeks".

AFPC's Senior Vice President Ilan I. Berman writes about Morocco for Al-Hurra Digial. Continue reading here.