"How will a Biden administration handle the Middle East? Now that the results of the hotly contested U.S. election are (mostly) known, foreign policy experts and officials alike are turning their attention to that question. Over the coming weeks and months more particulars will emerge, as will the personalities who will be tasked with managing one of the world's most volatile regions."

AFPC's Senior Vice President Ilan I. Berman writes about the Biden administration's stance on Iran for Newsweek. Continue reading here.
