

William Schneider Jr. writes on Reviving the Military Applications of New Energy in AFPC's Defense Dossier Issue 29

January 2, 2021

"There is today a growing consensus among western democratic countries regarding the People's Republic of China (PRC): that the PRC's threats to national sovereignty, economic prosperity, and national security, its blatant violations of human rights, and its disdain for international law represent a threat to the free world".

Read here.