

The Usual Suspects: The HDP Closure Case and Erdoğan's Growing Desperation

March 31, 2021

Related Categories: Democracy and Governance; Turkey

"President Recep Tayyip Erdoğan's decision to initiate a closure case against the pro-Kurdish Peoples' Democratic Party (HDP) is the latest in a series of increasingly desperate moves to try to slow the erosion in his popular support".

Continue reading here.