

Annie Swingen

VICE PRESIDENT FOR EXTERNAL RELATIONS

Annie Swingen serves as AFPC's Vice President for External Relations. She received her Masters degree from Georgetown University, where she was enrolled in the Communications, Culture and Technology program with a focus on security studies. Additionally, Annie earned a BA in Journalism from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, with a minor in Russian, Eastern European and Central Asian studies. She has studied and worked in the Czech Republic, and traveled extensively throughout Central and Eastern Europe.

media@afpc.org

571-236-5376

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

EUROPE INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

MEDIA STRATEGY

PUBLIC DIPLOMACY AND INFORMATION OPERATIONS

AFFILIATED PROGRAMS

Russia and Ukraine Program

U.S. Foreign Policy and National Security Program

RELATED NEWS & EVENTS

October 25, 2021 | Media

AFPC INSIGHTS - Episode 24: China's growing military hostility toward Taiwan

July 20, 2021 | Media

AFPC INSIGHTS - Episode 22: A foiled Iranian kidnapping, and implications for U.S. policy

June 28, 2021 | Media

VIDEO: AFPC INSIGHTS - Episode 21: Turmoil in Colombia...and beyond

June 28, 2021 | Media

AUDIO: AFPC INSIGHTS: Episode 21: Turmoil in Colombia...and beyond

RELATED PUBLICATIONS

July 31, 2023 | BULLETIN

Resource Security Watch No. 51

July 10, 2023 | BULLETIN

Resource Security Watch No.50

May 11, 2023 | BULLETIN

Resource Security Watch No. 49

February 7, 2023 | BULLETIN

Resource Security Watch No. 48